WITNESS STATEMENT

WEST, AARON DAVID

On 07-27-2000 at 2:40 PM this person was interviewed in front of the Coquille Police Department and gave the following in substance statement.

On the day Leah disappeared, we went out driving around and stopped at Fast Mart. I was with Josh Embler and David Jenkins. Nick was at Fast Mart and asked us if we wanted to go out to Johnson Mill pond to get high, to smoke some marijuana. Nick was in his red Thunderbird. He must have changed to the Mustang later in the night.

Nick wanted to go. It was 7:30-8:00 PM. We were there for a half hour to forty-five minutes.

I talked to Nick and he said that Leah made him wait for her for three hours by not showing up somewhere and that he was going to make her wait for him. Nick was real upset that Leah made him wait for her.

We left one time at about 8:00 PM. We were in my car and Nick was in his car, the Thunderbird. We drove back to Johnson mill pond and Nick wasn't there.

We left the mill pond at about 9:00 PM. We came in to town by Safeway and we saw Nick in his red Thunderbird. Nick was by Safeway. We drove to Fast Mart and talked to Nick. Nick said that he left the mill pond because he was supposed to go pick up Leah.

We were at Fast Mart for 10-20 minutes. Nick drove up and asked if we had seen Leah walking because she wasn't where she was supposed to be. Nick then asked a few other people if they saw Leah. Nick then took off driving in his Thunderbird.

Nick was back 20-30 minutes later. It was dusk, it was 9:45 PM - 9:50 PM.

I took David home, then I took Josh home, and then I drove back to town one time before I went home.

(Did somebody tell you directly what happened to Leah?) "No".

(Did anyone tell you where Leah's body is?) "No".

(Do you know who is responsible for Leah not being alive?) "No".
